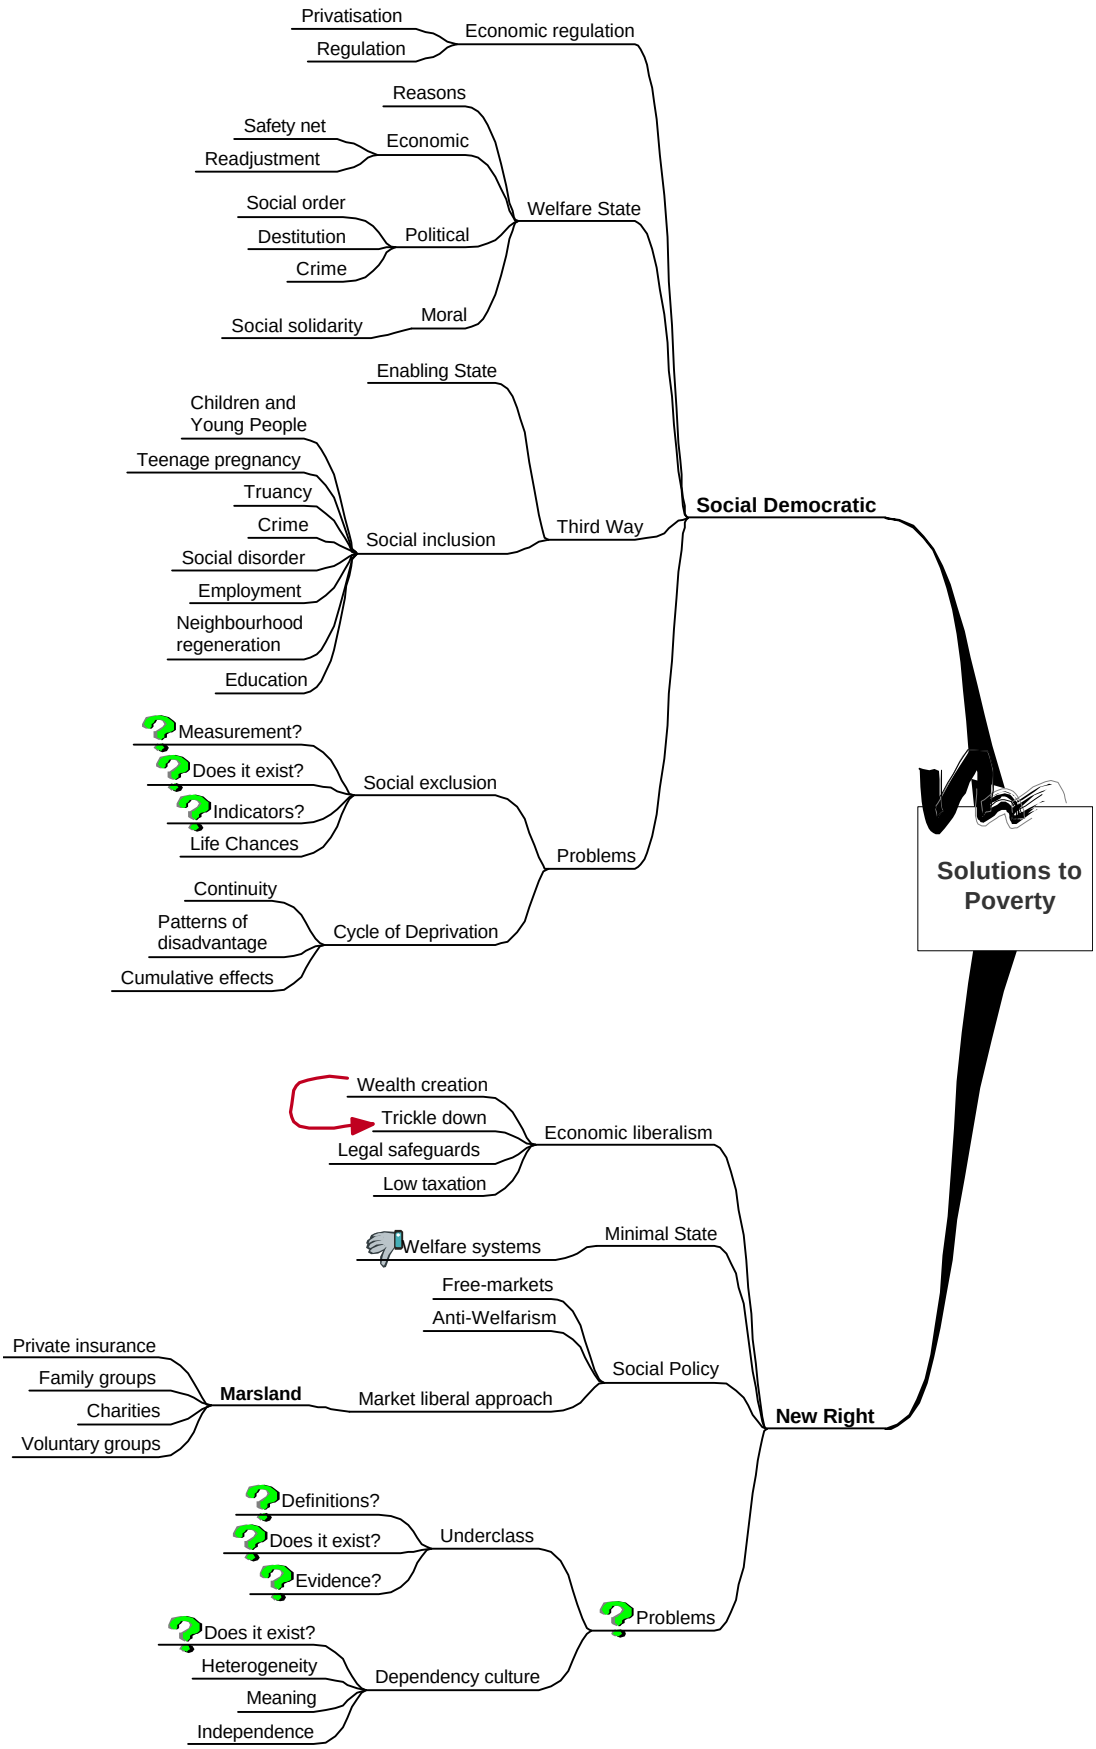
Solutions to Poverty
Feminist
Economic factors
Vertical segregation
Horizontal segregation
Primary labour markets
Secondary labour markets
Family Life
Single-parenthood
Homeworking
Retirement
Widowhood
TUC
Child Support payment increases
Paid carer leave
Earnings-related maternity pay
Increased Carer's Allowance
More funds for care services
Tax and pension credits
Welfare
Non qualification
Insurance
Means-tested
Universal
Child benefit
Pension changes
Dual role
Domestic work
Paid work
Part time?
Work
TUC
Raise minimum wage
Targets to raise income
Close gender pay gap
Affordable childcare
EOC
Employer pension schemes
Flexible part-time working
Pension entitlement
Education
Gender stereotyping
Gendered curriculum
Marxist
Communism
Problems of capitalism
Economic inequality
Welfarism
Social Control



Solutions to Poverty
Social Democratic
Welfare State
Reasons
Economic
Safety net
Readjustment
Political Social order
Destitution
Crime
Moral
Social solidarity
Economic regulation
Privatisation
Regulation
Third Way
Enabling State
Social inclusion
Children and Young People
Teenage pregnancy
Truancy
Crime
Social disorder
Employment
Neighbourhood regeneration
Education
Problems
Social exclusion
Measurement?
Does it exist?
Indicators?
Life Chances
Cycle of Deprivation
Continuity
Patterns of disadvantage
Cumulative effects
New Right
Economic liberalism
Wealth creation
Trickle down
Legal safeguards
Low taxation
Minimal State
Welfare systems
Social Policy
Free-markets
Anti-Welfarism
Market liberal approach
Marsland
Private insurance
Family groups
Charities
Voluntary groups
Problems
Underclass
Definitions?
Does it exist?
Evidence?
Dependency culture
Does it exist?
Heterogeneity
Meaning
Independence